POLICE COMMISSION.

The Boyle Heights Saloon Case Settled.

SEVERAL TRANSFERS GRANTED.

The Council Requested to Take Charge of the Defense of Officer Dorsey in the Abbott Case—Miscellaneous.

The Police Commissioners met in the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon, with Mayor Hazard presiding, and Commissioners Bryson, Collins, Lewis and Dexter present. Chief Glass was also in attendance as usual. On the request of Commissioner Bryson the minutes of the previous meeting were read.

In the matter of the application of John Frelinger for the transfer of the saloon license for No. 1100 North Main street, at the corner of San Fernando, now in the name of John Mitzam, the Chief, by Officer Wallin, presented a favorable report. A long protest against the granting of the transfer was presented on behalf of the church in the neighborhood (the Third Congregational), signed by George T. Haney and others, when Commissioner Dexter moved that the transfer be denied and argued at some length against it. Commissioner Collins said there was a saloon neither than the one in question, and he did not see why an exemption should not be made in this case. Mayor Hazard argued in favor of granting the transfer, when Commissioner Bryson said that he would like to look over the ground. After some general talk, and on the statement that the transfer was a bone fide transfer, it was granted, only Commissioner Dexter voting against it.

In the matter of the application of Marceline Eyrard for a saloon license for No. 812 Macy street the Chief reported that he did not have the necessary frontage, and it was denied under the rule.

The application of A. J. Kruger for the transfer of the saloon license for No. 2125 East First street, now in the name of H. W. Gerke, being in regular form was granted.

The demand of McLain & Lehman for bill posting for the Fourth of July was approved.

A communication from the City Clerk in reference to the disabled patrol-wagon horse was received and filed.

The matter of the saloon license of Henry Kramer, No. 1974 East First street, postponed for four weeks, was again taken up. This is what is known as the "Boyle Heights case," and the saloon license was granted under a mistake by the board, the officer having reported that Kramer had secured the necessary two-thirds frontage. It was afterward found that there was a mistake and that Kramer was not entitled to a permit, and a protest was presented to the board.

Major Hazard said that he would not revoke his license unless the people will compensate him for the expense he has been put to. Commissioner Collins argued to the same effect, and said that he had offered to contribute $30 toward a fund for that purpose.

After some discussion Commissioner Collins moved to lay the protest on the table and dismiss the matter, as Kramer's license had already been granted. Commissioner Lewis moved to lay Commissioner Collins' motion on the table, which was lost by a vote of 2 to 3. Commissioners Dexter and Lewis voted for the motion. Commissioner Collins' motion then prevailed by a vote of 3 to 2.

A communication was read from W. R. Norton protesting against random shooting inside the city limits, and asking that the ordinance be so amended as to make shooting inside the corporate limits unlawful, instead of only in the fire limits, and Commissioner Dexter presented a resolution to that effect.

There was some debate on the subject, after which Commissioner Dexter withdrew his resolution, and the communication was referred to the Council without recommendation.

Commissioner Collins then brought up the Dorsey-Abbott case. He said that the officer had seen fit, in the discharge of his duty to strike a man with his "billy," and that the man had been arrested on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. A Justice of the Peace had seen fit to hold the officer to answer to the charge, and he therefore moved that the Council be requested to ask the City Attorney to take charge of the defense of the officer.

The motion passed by a unanimous vote, after which the board adjourned.

SILVER has climbed up to 110¢ in New York, yet, wonderful to narrate, instead of importing it, as the gold bugs claimed we would have to, we are sending large quantities to Europe.

THE insurrection in Buenos Ayres has come to an early end. Dispatches announce that the government has granted general amnesty to all persons who took part in the uprising.

AND now an English syndicate is after the cranberry lands in New Jersey. Let us hope that these insatiable Britshers will at least leave us our turkeys for Thanksgiving.

SHOULD a Los Angeles justice be so unfortunate as to find himself in jail as a malefactor, would it be in order for him to get leave of absence from his jailer to hold court under custody of a policeman? This is a conundrum in jurisprudence which we command to the bench and bar of the city for solution.

THE San Bernardino Republican Convention meets today. San Bernardino Republicans are a gallant and hard-headed lot, who refused to be taken in by Mr. Waterman's "guff," and we look confidently to decisive action by the convention, which shall have special significance as coming from the Republicans of Mr. Waterman's own county. There is little doubt but the convention will give its emphatic endorsement to the candidacy of Col. Markham.

In the case of Officer Dorsey, who got into an encounter with "macs" in the Eintracht saloon on the night of the Fourth of July, and who used his billy and for that was arrested on the complaint of Johnny Abbott and taken before Justice Savage, that official held him for trial notwithstanding the fact that he made the remark to Chief Glass, who appeared for the purpose of furnishing bail for Dorsey, that any jury would acquit the officer, and hold that he had only performed his duty. Why, then, did Mr. Savage make such a remark? Can it have meant anything else than that the "macs" have a hold upon him?

A DISGUSTING BUSINESS.

Justice Lockwood has replied to the resolution passed by the Board of Supervisors, requesting him to resign. He refuses to do so, asserting that he has not violated the laws. And yet he has admitted having sheltered from the law Damron, a fugitive from justice, under bail. What manner of man is this?

Lockwood is said to have remarked that he cannot afford to resign. Most men would think that they could not afford to stay in office under such circumstances, but Mr. Lockwood's ideas are, in more ways than one, peculiar—with an appropriate prefix. Whether Mr. Lockwood can or cannot afford to resign, it is very certain that the county cannot afford to have him much longer on the bench. In another column will be found a statement showing how Chinese cases have been carried on in his court. From this it will be seen that there are now less than thirty-five continued cases of this character awaiting trial there, and that ten cases have been continued indefinitely. Since the first of April twenty venires have been called to try such cases, generally of thirty-six men each, making a total of seven hundred and twenty citizens taken from their occupations to try Chinese gambling and similar cases, which are continued on the slightest pretext. Mr. Lockwood, as a judicial luxury, comes high, but it appears that we must have him, until he is sent to jail or his term expires.

What "pull" have the Chinese of Los Angeles on Mr. Justice Lockwood? There are persons among us who claim that they could tell, if they wished. Meantime, the other distinguished criminal, Damron, gives the lie direct to Lockwood, by denying positively that he went to Lockwood's room at midnight and begged protection, as Lockwood stated. He asserts further that when he went to the room of this benevolent bosom friend he had thirty dollars, of which amount Lockwood took and retained twenty-five dollars. Twenty-five dollars is certainly not an extravagant price for boarding, sheltering and concealing a fugitive felon for from three to five days, even if the room was poorly furnished, but it is sufficient to knock all the romance out of the brotherly love and benevolence business. Even that much, it appears. Lockwood cannot claim as a set-off to his astonishing and heinous infraction of the law which he has sworn to uphold and administer. And yet this man has the presumption to prate about the harsh treatment which he has received from the press, and to attempt to pose as a martyr!

Mr. Lockwood has not yet announced his intention of offering his name for reelection. That, however, may come. Nothing could surprise us, in this affair, after what has happened thus far. Should he escape a prison cell he may yet seek vindication at the hands of the people from his journalistic traducers.

What an inexpressibly dirty and disgusting business it is! This man's reputation taints the atmosphere. His presence is a menace to the moral health of the community. Some means should be found to disinfect the moral atmosphere.

MACHINE POLITICS.

In an early issue of THE TIMES will be published a significant and important utterance by Senator Thomas C. Platt of New York, under the head of "A Field for Young Men," in which Mr. Platt urges them to go into politics. He says:

Under our republican form of government the office-holders are merely the servants of the people. But if the people neglect their duty, what can we expect from their servants?

The ordinary principles of business should be applied to politics. All the evils growing out of our political system can be traced to a failure on the part of the people to do their duty. There would have been no Tweed ring but for the almost criminal carelessness, indifference and neglect of the intelligent voters.

To the same indifference we are indebted for the present domination of Tammany in this city.

New York city contains a large mass of machine-men who have neither the independence nor the inclination to favor a clean, honest government. They follow the Tammany organization blindly whether it listeth or leaveth any man. There is no question, doubt or shadow that Tammany should be re-nominated the present Mayor whether there would be any material diminution of this machine vote. Certain it is that there would be no cutting of the candidate among the rank and file on moral grounds. The supremacy of Tammany in this city and State can be regarded as a national disgrace. There has never been a time in the history of the metropolis when it was not possible for the united elements of opposition to carry this city. They now have it in their power to demolish and overthrow the corrupt Tammany ring.

Traditions are all very well, but every man is sure of himself who makes his own independent investigation and forms his own opinions. . . . It should be made impossible for a dishonest or unclean man to secure a nomination for any office, or an election in the event of his nomination.

For a man who has sometimes been accused of hidebound partisanship, these are brave words.

1. An editorial defending machine politics, the Trombone yesterday said:

The Tribune has no fear that the Republican "machine" will be otherwise constructed or otherwise directed. It finds no necessity for reading its party a homily on "Decency in Politics."

Certainly not! Notwithstanding the fact that an ex-Assemblyman is in the County Jail; that a Justice of the Peace is under bail, and likely to go there; that the Prosecuting Attorney is not distinguished for either competency, energy or efficiency, and that there are several other equally palpable evils which endanger the reputation and success of the local party, this owl-like dispenser of tedious twaddle sees nothing to call for criticism, for warning, or for advice. Why should it be expected to? The Trombone was never known to denounce anything nearer home than Great Britain or Cochin China, and then it would take back what it said, if any one asked to Bah! These things cause us lassitude.

The San Francisco Call referring to the claim of some of Markham's friends that one ballot will be sufficient to secure his nomination, says:

It must be confessed that the claim is worthy of consideration, and it certainly looks as though two ballots would land him at the head of the ticket, with votes to spare. The drift of sentiment is all in his direction, and every

The new Broadway market, opposite the postoffice, is progressing rapidly in public favor. This important enterprise has heretofore been fully described in these columns, and it only needs to be added now that it is a satisfaction to see progressive owners of real estate benefited to the fullest extent. Many stalls in the new market are occupied, others remain to be taken. It being a new enterprise, dealers would do well to make their business and locations known to the census.

The Revenue Cutter Rush Busy with Bering Sea Poachers.

Southern Pacific Officials Think the Santa Fe Line Will Soon Be Extended to San Francisco, Etc.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SALEM (Or.) July 30.—[By the Associated Press.] S. W. R. Jones, a wealthy farmer and land-owner living north of Salem, yesterday evening was buncoled out of $5000 in gold. A man and woman, representing themselves as wealthy, called to buy his farm a few days ago, and while en route to Salem yesterday, he met another man representing himself to be a Louisiana lottery agent, and who induced Jones to invest in a ticket. He did and drew $5. He bought another and got $15,000, which the agent said he could not pay unless he knew that Jones was worth that amount, whereupon Jones came to Salem and borrowed $5000, and went to meet the supposed agent, who pretended to put $10,000 in gold and bonds in a tin box with Jones' money. He then gave the box to Jones to keep, saying he would meet him in Salem to-day and cash the ticket. The swindler changed the tin boxes on Jones, giving him one containing two rocks. Jones offers $500 for the apprehension of the lottery agent.

FROM THE FAR NORTH.

A Schooner Seized—The Cutter Rush Not Idle.

VICTORIA (B.C.) July 30.—[By the Associated Press.] News has been received here of the seizure of the Seattle schooner George A. White by the United States customs agent at Unalaska. The White, like the Hattie Dyer, neglected to keep a copy of the bond filed, which provided that she would not take firearms into Alaska.

The Victoria schooner Ariel is reported to have been boarded by the cutter Rush and warned to keep out of Bering Sea. A copy of the formal proclamation thereon was given to her captain. This incident, it is thought, contradicts the belief that the policy of 1888 will be pursued this season by the United States.

THE SANTA FE'S EXTENSION.

Belief That It Will Build to San Francisco at Once.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—[By the Associated Press.] The most important topic of discussion in railroad circles is the prospect of the Santa Fe's extension to this city. A. N. Towne said today that he had no doubt of the intention to build to San Francisco at once.

Vice-President Stubbs said: "Let them come. By the terms of the contract with our company, they are obliged to give us three years' notice before commencing to build, or forfeit $300,000. They will probably evade this provision by organizing another company."

A Convict's Fatal Fall.

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, July 30.—This afternoon about 2 o'clock Convict Thomas Harper, employed as a brickmason on the new front-gate building, fell head first from the balcony, a distance of eighteen feet, fracturing his skull and dying instantly. He came here in May, 1884, for eight years for grand larceny, committed in San Francisco, and his term would have expired in September of this year. A coroner's jury has been summoned and an inquest will be held at the prison tomorrow.

Miss Bayard's Narrow Escape.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The Examiner's special from Warm Springs, Va., says: Miss Bayard, daughter of ex-Secretary Bayard, had a remarkably narrow escape from instant death. She had ridden up to Flag Rock, the topmost peak of the Warm Spring range. In attempting to turn her buggy it was upset and rolled over the precipice. Miss Bayard fell about 40 feet, but strange to say she was unharmed. The horse and buggy went down about 210 feet.

He then stole a horse from George Hastings' farm and escaped, going toward Montrose. The Sheriff is in pursuit and expects soon to capture the man. The cause for the deed was the murderer taking exception to Foster whipping his own child. The murdered man leaves a widow and six children in deplorable circumstances.

LINCOLN (Neb.), July 30.—Officers of the Irish National League today issued an address to members of the league throughout the country, setting forth the urgent necessity for the immediate transmission of all available funds in America to the home organization, and authorizing all branches and individuals to forward funds direct to the treasurer of the league in Dublin, Dr. Joseph L. Kinney, M. P., 43 Upper O'Connell street, Dublin.

MULLAN'S CASE.

THE NIPSC'S GALLANT COMMANDER SHELVED.

Receiving Praise and a Medal from Abroad but Neglected at Home
—The Samoan Disaster Unpleasantly Recalled.

By Telegraph to The Times.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—[By the Associated Press.] The Examiner's Washington special says: Some comment has been caused by the anomalous position of Commander Dennis W. Mullan of the navy, in view of statements contained in the recent report made to Congress. That report, accompanied by a joint resolution, authorized Commander Mullan to accept a medal from the Chilean government. In 1880 Commander Mullan was detailed to observe military operations between Chile and Peru, and witness two battles. As a compliment to him the Chilean government sent a medal to the Secretary of State to be presented to him.

The report closes with the statement that "Commander Dennis W. Mullan of the United States Navy, by his official acts as an officer of the navy, has, on many occasions, reflected great credit upon himself and upon the navy, which have rendered him eminently worthy to receive at the hands of the Chilean government this testimonial of their appreciation."

Yet Commander Mullan, of whom these complimentary words are spoken, has been for more than a year past rustinating on waiting orders, having become engaged in a controversy with Admiral Kimberly, which resulted in the Commander being detached from command of the Nipsc after the Samoan wreck in March, 1889. The Nipsc was badly damaged in the storm, and a jury rudder was rigged, with which she started to Honolulu for further repairs. Commander Mullan, after proceeding part of the way, returned to Samoa, declining to continue the voyage with the ship in that condition, whereupon Admiral Kimberly relieved him of his command and he was sent home. Under another officer the Nipsc made the voyage successfully.

Around the Navy Department there is more or less criticism respecting the manner in which the Samoa storm was treated and the consequences that ensued. It is said by some that Admiral Kimberly and acting Rear Admiral Walker, then chief of the Bureau of Navigation, by whom Secretary Tracy was influenced, uniting in discouraging the holding of a court of inquiry because the finding might have injured the judgment of the Admiral in not ordering the vessels to sea when the approach of the tornado was heralded by the barometer.

Good seamanship, it is asserted, would have taken the alarm and sent the vessels to sea to ride out the storm rather than to leave them at anchor to be pounded to pieces on the shore. It is also commented on as a strange thing, in view of the very flattering endorsement of Commander Mullan by the two committees of Congress, as quoted, that no court of inquiry has been held to investigate the reasons for his removal by Admiral Kimberly, nor any steps taken after more than a year of enforced idleness to restore him to command of the vessel.

Crops Destroyed by Hail.
CASSELLTOWN (N. D.), July 30.—The most disastrous hailstorm of the season swept over the southern part of the country today. A strip of country four miles wide and ten to twelve miles long was almost entirely stripped of crops.

Dispatched from Wheatland report terrible damage in that vicinity, the crops in five thousand acres of land being almost entirely ruined.

Victims of a River Disaster.

BALTIMORE, July 30.—Four more bodies, victims of Monday night's disaster on the river, were recovered to-day.

It now seems that the number of persons who lost their lives by the disaster is fourteen. Two other victims are lying critically ill and will probably die.

Collision Between Steamers.

A Committee Appointed in the House to Investigate the Charges Against Commissioner of Pensions.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON (D.C.), July 30.—[By the Associated Press.] Senate.—Mr. Sherman offered an amendment to the Deficiency Appropriation Bill, which was referred to the Committee on Appropriations, appropriating $50,000 for marking the boundary line between the United States and Mexico, and expects soon to capture the man. The cause for the deed was the murderer taking exception to Foster whipping his own child. The murdered man leaves a widow and six children in deplorable circumstances.

Funds Wanted for Ireland.

LINCOLN (Neb.), July 30.—Officers of the Irish National League today issued an address to members of the league throughout the country, setting forth the urgent necessity for the immediate transmission of all available funds in America to the home organization, and authorizing all branches and individuals to forward funds direct to the treasurer of the league in Dublin, Dr. Joseph L. Kinney, M. P., 43 Upper O'Connell street, Dublin.

MULLAN'S CASE.

THE NIPSC'S GALLANT COMMANDER SHELVED.

—The Samoan Disaster Unpleasantly Recalled.

By Telegraph to The Times.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—[By the Associated Press.] The Examiner's Washington special says: Some comment has been caused by the anomalous position of Commander Dennis W. Mullan of the navy, in view of statements contained in the recent report made to Congress. That report, accompanied by a joint resolution, authorized Commander Mullan to accept a medal from the Chilean government. In 1880 Commander Mullan was detailed to observe military operations between Chile and Peru, and witness two battles. As a compliment to him the Chilean government sent a medal to the Secretary of State to be presented to him.

The report closes with the statement that "Commander Dennis W. Mullan of the United States Navy, by his official acts as an officer of the navy, has, on many occasions, reflected great credit upon himself and upon the navy, which have rendered him eminently worthy to receive at the hands of the Chilean government this testimonial of their appreciation."

Yet Commander Mullan, of whom these complimentary words are spoken, has been for more than a year past rustinating on waiting orders, having become engaged in a controversy with Admiral Kimberly, which resulted in the Commander being detached from command of the Nipsc after the Samoan wreck in March, 1889. The Nipsc was badly damaged in the storm, and a jury rudder was rigged, with which she started to Honolulu for further repairs. Commander Mullan, after proceeding part of the way, returned to Samoa, declining to continue the voyage with the ship in that condition, whereupon Admiral Kimberly relieved him of his command and he was sent home. Under another officer the Nipsc made the voyage successfully.

Around the Navy Department there is more or less criticism respecting the manner in which the Samoa storm was treated and the consequences that ensued. It is said by some that Admiral Kimberly and acting Rear Admiral Walker, then chief of the Bureau of Navigation, by whom Secretary Tracy was influenced, uniting in discouraging the holding of a court of inquiry because the finding might have injured the judgment of the Admiral in not ordering the vessels to sea when the approach of the tornado was heralded by the barometer.

Good seamanship, it is asserted, would have taken the alarm and sent the vessels to sea to ride out the storm rather than to leave them at anchor to be pounded to pieces on the shore. It is also commented on as a strange thing, in view of the very flattering endorsement of Commander Mullan by the two committees of Congress, as quoted, that no court of inquiry has been held to investigate the reasons for his removal by Admiral Kimberly, nor any steps taken after more than a year of enforced idleness to restore him to command of the vessel.

Crops Destroyed by Hail.
CASSELLTOWN (N. D.), July 30.—The most disastrous hailstorm of the season swept over the southern part of the country today. A strip of country four miles wide and ten to twelve miles long was almost entirely stripped of crops.

Dispatched from Wheatland report terrible damage in that vicinity, the crops in five thousand acres of land being almost entirely ruined.

Victims of a River Disaster.

BALTIMORE, July 30.—Four more bodies, victims of Monday night's disaster on the river, were recovered to-day.

It now seems that the number of persons who lost their lives by the disaster is fourteen. Two other victims are lying critically ill and will probably die.

Collision Between Steamers.

CAYUCOS, July 30.—The steamer Los Angeles, both bound north, collided six miles north of here today and put back to Cayucos wharf. The Navarro was uninjured. The Los Angeles began to ship water, and will go back to Port Harford.

The Sugar Trust's Bankers.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Officials of the sugar trust today announced that Kidder, Peabody & Co. had been selected as bankers for the reorganization committee, and the firm has been added to the committee.

Western States. The farm mortgage indebtedness has been grossly exaggerated, and he understood the census reports would show that farm mortgages in Kansas and Maine were less than one-quarter of the amount which had been represented. The charge that American farmers were hugely in debt, or more so than the farmers of any other country, was a gross calumny. Markets which could not be found abroad had to be made at home, and they could only be made by protection. Referring to the countries of Central and South America, Mr. Morrill said that of agricultural products cattle, sheep and horses had an abundant and cheap supply, not only for home consumption, but also for exportation. To carry any of these products there, in the vain hope of finding a market would be like "carrying coals to Newcastle." On the question of sugar, Mr. Morrill said the adding of free sugar to the breakfast table presented a stronger case than tea and coffee presented in 1872 for like treatment. If the United States could (as had been done by several European countries) supply its own sugar, $90,000,000 would be kept at home that was now sent to Cuba and elsewhere never to return. In conclusion, Mr. Morrill said that any amendment offered in good faith that would improve the bill would be cordially received, but all attempts to heap thorns upon it would, he hoped, be rejected.

The amendment offered yesterday by Mr. McPherson was rejected.

Mr. McPherson continued to offer amendments for the reduction of the rates on articles in the chemical schedule, but they were all mercilessly rejected by party votes. The only change made in the schedule was a reduction (on motion of Mr. Aldrich) of the duty on chloroform from 40 to 25 cents per pound.

Mr. Vest moved to reduce the duty on iodofrom from $1.50 to $1 per pound. Rejected.

The Tariff Bill was then laid aside, and the conference report on the District of Columbia Appropriation Bill was presented.

No action was taken, and after an executive session the Senate adjourned.

House.—Mr. McComas of Maryland called up the conference report on the District of Columbia Appropriation Bill, Mr. Cannon of Illinois resigning the right to call up the Sundry Civil Bill for the reason of sickness in Mr. McComas' family, necessitating his return home.

Mr. Mutchler of Pennsylvania opposed the report on the ground that if the bill passed there would be a deficit of $275,000 to $400,000.

After debate the conference report was agreed to, and the House went into committee of the whole on the Senate's amendments to the Sundry Civil Bill.

Mr. Cummings made an attack upon the direction of the geological survey and favored the Senate irrigation amendment.

Mr. Cannon replied briefly. Pending action the committee rose.

The Speaker announced the appointment of the following members on the committee to investigate the charges against Commissioner Raum: Morrill, Sawyer, Smoyer, Goodnight and Martin of Indiana.

Adjourned.

At 200 yards range several 44's were made, and at the 600-yard range, a slight breeze having sprung up, the scores were not as good as might have been expected, although Corporal Swanson, Troop D, Sixth Cavalry, made a score of 43 points. There were fourteen competitors and the following are the names of those making the best scores:

For 200 yards: Private A. Keiser, Sixth Cavalry, 44 out of possible 50.

For 300 yards: Corporal J. C. Thornton, Sixth Cavalry, 45.

For 500 yards: First Sergt. Finnegan, of the Tenth Cavalry, score 46.

Tomorrow the shooting will be resumed.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 30.—Louis de Wa Washburn, a leading civil engineer, was drowned in Lake Minnetonka this evening with his wife, Gussie Buckman, daughter of E. H. Buckman of Sioux City, Iowa. He was teaching her to swim, when he was seized with cramps and both went down.

First Day of the Regular Chautauqua Programme.

ORGANIZATION OF CLASSES.

First Regular Lecture of the Course
— by James Clement Ambrose
The Evening Lecture—
Notes.

REDONDO BEACH, July 30.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Yesterday was the first day of the regular Chautauqua programme at Redondo, and a portion of it was consumed in the organization of classes and arrangement for systematic and efficient work.

James Clement Ambrose delivered the first regular lecture of the course. Owing largely to the lateness of the hour at which the Tuesday evening session closed, the morning audience was not large, but the frequent applause that greeted the speaker showed that he was by no means unappreciated.

The speaker is of keen wit and expresses himself in sentences clear and concise. His figures of speech are well chosen, and his comparisons drawn with vigor and originality. He held his audience with marked attention, and his lectures for which he is skilled during the course will be looked forward to as abounding in sound logic and at the same time having sufficient wit to be entertaining.

"MY PARTNER." His subject was "My Partner." In early life his father warned him against partnerships, but about the first thing he did at majority was to form a life partnership and with a young woman. He believed this the best partnership a young man could engage in and the best one an old man could stick to. Whether it was the best for the woman or not depended upon whether she was an unusual partner or only a household cleaning machine to keep things clean "from dishes to dust." God created Adam a king, but he also made Eve a queen.

He is a firm believer that woman should have all rights privileged to man. She is the impulse of the family circle, and the family is the force that guides the State. Would the State therefore be the worse for her ballot? This is the question that will not sit down till it sits right side up.

The States today in which woman is the greatest factor are the greatest States, and where man is the only factor man is the meanest.

Mining camps were cited as examples. Lieut. Greely attempted to establish a male colony near the North Pole, but a sad experience taught that man would not keep alone, even on ice.

It is argued that she does not understand politics. Males of this generation, if you had never had a political right would you understand politics? But give her a chance and see how soon she will equal you in the knowledge of State.

She is said to be mentally frail. But there are in our poorhouses 17 per cent, more men than women, and in prisons men outnumber women 13 to 1, and all the time they were going there they were legislating for their poor, weak sisters! Ninety per cent. of our teachers are women. She who cannot vote is teaching youth how to vote. The preceptor of freedom is herself not free.

Some say the right to vote and the ability to bear arms should go hand in hand.

According to our army drafts, then, blacksmiths are most fitted for the polls, while lawyers, farmers, journalists and the clergy form but a small and feeble minority. Again it is said the feeble women would demoralize politics! Chicago and the like is as bad as the worst, has according to police reports, but for a thousand vile women and two thousand of them are under 21.

Women's influence is as a whole, always for the best, and their force at the polls is needed in full—to keep the men from getting full.

Beecher, Whittier, Longfellow, Lincoln, Gladstone and a host of our most brilliant lights favor woman's equality of rights.

Plato measured man and woman by the same measure. Paul said, "Ye are one in Jesus Christ," and from Jehovah himself we hear, "I will pour out my spirit upon your sons and your daughters."

In conclusion he said: "The ballot for woman is coming. Prejudice is a high fence, but progress is a high jumper. The Red Sea of opposition is dividing, and behind the promised land, where the right to do good is open to all. Sisters, be strong in your gentleness, and when your strength is felt in its full force at the ballot-box man will bless woman the more, and our land will be still happier for her greater influence."

EVENING LECTURE.

For the evening lecture C. E. Bolton was introduced as "one of the most widely-traveled men, not of America alone, but of Europe as well."

His subject was "Reunited Germany and Heroic Louise." It was an imaginary journey through the empire, enlivened by incidents of history; and as he approached, in his discourse, a city, famous building or prominent personage the picture of his subject was flashed upon the canvas by means of a stereopticon. His whole discourse was replete with original thought and vivid description, and the views gave still greater interest to the evening discourse.

NOTES.

The large attendance at the assembly meetings has surprised both Chautauquans and townsmen. According to a careful estimate, fully twenty-five hundred people attended Tuesday night's opening. President Fleming is happy. "Next year," says he, "we will double our numbers. People begin to realize what Chautauqua is to mean on this coast."

Owing to an omission in announcement Dr. A. J. Frost did not deliver his lecture on "The Book of Hebrews," but it will be put on the programme for a later date.

Mrs. D. B. Wilson and Miss Wilson are still at the Redondo.

Mrs. H. M. Cobb, the teacher of French at the Chautauqua, is not only skilled in her profession, but is a most charming conversationalist. She has spent some twenty years in Europe, and her vivid description of scene and incident draws about her a host of interested listeners.

A sweet-toned chime of bells in the tower of the amphitheater announce the time of each meeting.

C. E. Bolton, the celebrated historic lecturer, is at the Redondo.

E. B. Tufts of Tuft-Lyons Company was at the beach yesterday.

In front of the amphitheater a circular plat, one-quarter of a mile in circumference, is being laid out. Workmen are busy rolling and sprinkling, putting it in first-class condition for

During the intervals of the programme the Redondo Hotel is the scene of increased life and gaiety. Groups seek the spacious parlors or broad corridors for quiet conversation or bask in the sunbeams and sunshine on the verandas.

Emily J. Raymond of New York, author of "About Chautauqua," says that the present assembly is most like the old Chautauqua in numbers and spirit of anything she has ever seen on this southern coast.

The schools of languages, French, German and Spanish, meet at the school building this morning, as does also the school of oratory.

MARKHAM AND BOWERS.

The Facts Regarding the Orange County Indorsement.

THE TIMES, on Tuesday morning, published a letter from Santa Ana, signed "Fair Play," correcting an erroneous impression and giving the facts as to the alleged Markham-Bowers indorsement by the Orange county convention, to wit, that Col. Markham only was indorsed for Governor in the regular resolutions, and when a number of delegates had left the hall, a friend of Senator Bowers (Col. Edwards) had engineered the Markham-Bowers resolution through, which was attached as a "rider" to the regular proceedings of the convention.

Yesterday another letter was received, characterizing "Fair Play's" assertion as a fabrication, and including a copy of the Santa Ana Times, containing the proceedings of the convention, to back up his statement.

From the printed proceedings, however, it would appear that "Fair Play's" statements are exactly correct, as in the regular report of the committee on resolutions the following appears, containing, as will be seen, only the name of Col. Markham:

Resolved, that in presenting the name of Hon. H. H. Markham as the Republican nominee to the highest office within the gift of the people of this Golden State, we name a gentleman who is the peer of any other in the State, a statesman, a man of broad vision and of great worth.

Resolved, that the said Col. Edwards be indorsed for Governor in the regular resolutions, and when a number of delegates had left the hall, a friend of Senator Bowers (Col. Edwards) had engineered the Markham-Bowers resolution through, which was attached as a "rider" to the regular proceedings of the convention.

THE TIMES IN PASADENA.

The advantages to residents of Pasadena in buying THE TIMES consist in the fact that they not only get in its columns the news of their own city every day, but also the news of Los Angeles, of the State, the Coast, the East and the world.

The paper is served regularly by carrier, at an early hour every morning, to the residences and business places of citizens, at the same price charged in Los Angeles.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

One more day left for entering your horses for the races.

It cost $3.37 to educate each pupil in the Pasadena public school district the last year.

THE sporting fraternity are determined to make the most out of Saturday's races. Numerous bets are being made.

It is always easy to pick out the man who seldom travels. It's all very well to be impressed by this country and climate, but a passenger on the Cross road yesterday overdid the thing. He said his home was in Arizona and his actions indicated that this was the first time he had ever left it. He went into rapt ecstasy over the country and intimated that if the Garden of Eden was ever half as beautiful Father Adam was a goose to be led astray by Mother Eve. When Pasadena was reached so taken was he with the surroundings that he went almost wild with rapture, and was only quieted by being informed that the natives had grown so accustomed to the beauties with which Nature has been so lavish in our midst that they might misinterpret his actions and put him in jail for disorderly conduct. The last seen of him he was going up Colorado street, with mouth wide open and eyes like saucers, drinking in a scene with which the inhabitants of Arizona are evidently not familiar.

BREVITIES.

Yesterday's west-bound overland surprised people by running in on time.

The Valley Hunt kennel has been augmented by the recent arrival of over twenty youthful hounds.

The foot-ball men indulged in a final practice game yesterday evening. Great things may be expected of the team today.

The hook-and-ladder horses pull the sprinkling cart in the mornings, and the work is done in the afternoon by the steamer span.

The meeting of the Social Purity Society on Saturday afternoon will be for ladies only. It will be held at the residence of Dr. Black.

PEOPLE'S STORE.

THURSDAY, July 31, 1890.

Experience has taught us that only prime values, good sensible bargains, is what the people want. This half-go-between way of a cent or so reduction does not tell. We go into our reduction sales with a vim and spirit unknown to others. Our drop in prices is so far below that they at once become the magnetic leaders that we intend them to be. This is the sole secret of the success of our sales—there is no hidden magic by which we gain our trade and have crowds waiting to be served, many times to their discontent and displeasure.
